

GSI Technology Joins Russell 3000® Index

June 29, 2009

SANTA CLARA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 29, 2009-- GSI Technology, Inc. (Nasdaq: GSIT) announced that as of June 26, 2009 it has been added to the Russell 3000® Index. The index is comprised of the 3,000 largest public companies listed on U.S. stock exchanges as measured by market capitalization.

"Being included in the Russell 3000 is a significant event for the Company," said Lee-Lean Shu, president and CEO, who noted that the many Russell indexes are widely used by investors to gauge the performance of managers of index funds and as benchmarks for both passive and active investment strategies.

According to Russell, the 3000 Index is constructed to provide a comprehensive, unbiased, and stable barometer of the broad market and is reconstituted annually to ensure that it reflects new and growing equities. "We expect that inclusion in this widely recognized index will broaden our exposure in the investment community and promote greater market awareness among both retail and institutional investors," said Mr. Shu.
